(PRWeb) July 25, 2007 -- ComCorp, Inc., one of the world's largest and most experienced search engine marketing and search engine optimization firms, today announced the acquisition of its U.S. Class 100, 101 and 102 service mark. The company's new service mark distinguishes and identifies the commercial use of its unique and distinctive services.

Obtained from the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the company's vested and established right to its new service mark applies to its advertising, marketing and promotional services, business marketing consulting services, and promotion of goods and services of others through search engine referral traffic analysis and reporting. This legal designation safeguards the company's financial, physical and intellectual investment in the research, development and commercial offering of such services.

"We're thrilled to announce our recent service mark filing and acquisition," states Tammy Camp, President and CEO of ComCorp, Inc. "The ComCorp name and reputation are two of our most valuable assets. Our new service mark protects both. With this safeguard, we're able to continually provide innovative solutions that substantially improve our clients search engine rankings."

In trusting the original ComCorp brand, businesses are assured superior quality and value. To learn more about ComCorp, review its services, products or portfolio, please visit www.comcorp.com.
