(PRLEAP.COM) ComCorp, Inc., one of the world's largest and most experienced search engine marketing and search engine optimization (SEM/SEO) agencies, today announced it has appointed Tammy Camp to the position of President and Chief Executive Officer, effective February 1, 2007.

Tammy Camp, 27, has served since September 2001 as a pioneer in the internet business arena. Miss Camp has spent her veteran 6 year career in a range of general management, operations and sales, and marketing positions. From 2002, Tammy Camp designed and implemented internet marketing plans for several Fortune 500 companies, such as Expedia, Hotwire, Amazon and eBay, which expanded their businesses into the international markets. In 2004, Tammy Camp generated over 100 million dollars in online sales, making her one of the top international internet marketers and consultants.

On January 3, 2007, ComCorp held a search for the most qualified candidates for the position as Tammy Camp served as interim CEO for ComCorp. After reviewing all the candidates, ComCorp unanimously selected Tammy Camp based on her track record for leading a complex organization, as well as her strong executive and personal qualities.

"Our search for a new leader for ComCorp, Inc. has been focused and thorough," said Garcia. "A screening team of board members established a broad field of candidates and interviewed many individuals. We then recommended the strongest contenders to the board as finalists. Each was interviewed by the entire board, and Tammy Camp was our top choice.

Camp will take up her new duties at ComCorp, Inc. on February 1.
